Max Coppa reveals the many secrets hidden in the palm of your hand

Q What does my palm say about me, Max?
J. P. Vic, born 13/6/1959.

A The squarish shape of your hand shows you are a down-to-earth kind of person – and your head line slopes into Luna, which tells me you have a good imagination as well.

Your heart line shows you've had a few ups and downs as far as your romantic relationships are concerned. I'd say you have been married more than once.

When you were young, you had to deal with big issues in your family. The break in your head line shows you hit rock bottom then. But rest assured, you probably won't have to live through something that difficult ever again – especially where your health is concerned.

Headaches and sinus problems are linked to your emotional state. When you have these attacks, ask yourself what is really upsetting you. Your health line shows your immune system may be low most of this year, but you will have no serious health problems.

Last year was positive yet busy, and more changes are coming now. You will have a few relationship difficulties to overcome, but love and happiness look good for you after that.

Looking at your numbers, I see from your birth date that you're intelligent, say what you think and can be feisty. Being a Life Lesson 7 [in numerology], you'll face many challenges – but don't ever doubt yourself! You have very gifted numbers and a lot of potential.
